

I. R. G. C.
INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH GROUP ON CHAROPHYTES

APPLICATION FORM FOR NEW MEMBERS

LAST NAME: _____

FIRST NAME: _____

ORGANIZATION AND ADDRESS: _____

E-MAIL ADDRESS: _____

Postal address where you would like to receive IRGC News if it is different from the one stated above: _____

Phone: _____

Topics within the Charophytes (chose one): Extant _____ Fossil _____

Particular interests (optional information): _____

DATE: _____ SIGNATURE _____

Members are entitled to vote and eligible for the Executive Committee; they receive the IRGC Newsletter, which gives information about what is going on in Charophyte research; they may use the IRGC News to circulate appropriate information to the community.

As decided by the General Assembly of the IRGC, the annual membership fees amount 20 Euros (approx. 25 $US). (payment instructions see next page)

Please print, fill and sign, and send back to:

MICHELLE CASANOVA

mt.casanova@federation.edu.au

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH GROUP ON CHAROPHYTES (I.R.G.C.)

Membership fees

The annual membership fees since 2009 are 20 Euro and are due by January each year. Multiple-year payment is encouraged to reduce mailing and banking costs.

Bank to bank transfer

Please pay first to the IRGC account (Banque La Poste) and then send the receipt of your payment to Dr. Michał Brzozowski, IRGC Treasurer, for our records. E-mail address: mbrzozowsk@gmail.com

When doing the bank transfer please ensure that your name and year(s) of membership paid are included in the payment form.

Bank account details:

Account-holder: International Research Group on Charophytes

Name of bank: BANQUE LA POSTE

BIC (International ID of Bank): PSSTFRPPMON

IBAN: FR 76 20041 01009 0350328M030 21

Note: unfortunately, the abbreviation IRGC is also used by a radical organization. Please make sure to use the full name (International Research Group on Charophytes), or IRGCharophytes on the bank transfer form!